H-1B Registration

U.S. employers or agents who seek to obtain H-1B nonimmigrant classification on behalf of an individual subject to the H-1B numerical limitation need to submit a registration during a designated registration period, unless the registration requirement is suspended by USCIS.

You may submit as many beneficiaries as you would like for one registrant (employer or agent) per registration.

The annual initial registration period will last a minimum of 14 calendar days and will start at least 14 calendar days before the earliest date on which H-1B cap-subject petitions may be filed for a particular fiscal year.

If a sufficient number of registrations projected as needed to reach the H-1B regular cap have not been received within the 14 days initial registration period, we will notify all registrants who have properly registered that their registrations have been selected. We will keep the registration open past the initial registration period until we have determined that we have received enough registrations projected as needed to reach the H-1B regular cap.

After the end of the initial registration period, if USCIS has received more registrations than needed to reach the projected number of registrations to reach the regular cap, we will randomly select a sufficient number of registrations. A similar process will apply for those who may be eligible for the numerically limited cap exemption. A Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, may then be filed by the employer based on a selected registration to request classification of the beneficiary as an H-1B worker.

Before you start your registration

Eligibility

A U.S. employer or agent may file H-1B cap petitions, and as such, will be required to submit an H-1B Registration to be eligible to file the H-1B cap petition.

U.S. Employer: Person or entity in U.S. that:
- Engages a person to work in the U.S.;
- Has an employer-employee relationship with the beneficiary, and
- Has an EIN.

Agent: A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file an H-1B registration for workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf.

Duplicates:

A registrant (employer or agent) may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. If a registrant submits more than one registration per beneficiary in the same fiscal year, all registrations filed by that registrant relating to that beneficiary for that fiscal year will be considered invalid.

DHS Privacy Notice

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to conduct an appropriate analysis for the annual H-1B registration process. DHS uses the provided information to select a pre-determined number of registrations to review. The selection of the registrants will be based on the amount of H-1B numerical limitations, including the advanced degree exemption, and associated selected registrants with exceptionally high-need in H-1B cap petitions. If the registration requirement is satisfied, a registered H-1B cap beneficiary will be eligible to file for an H-1B cap petition for the named beneficiary.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information may preclude you from filing an H-1B cap petition on behalf of the named beneficiary.

This data will be used only as directed by the immigration statute and will not be used or disclosed to any other government entity or any non-governmental entity or individual except as authorized by law. This data will be used only within DHS and/or with other Federal agencies, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved policies and procedures in the handling and protection of personal information.
